Plaintiff,

v.

GREGORIO GUZMAN

Defendants.

No. 2:23-cr-00206-JAM

ORDER

Defendant, via counsel, has requested that the court order the United States Probation Office to produce the “Chronos/Client History” portion of defendant’s file to allow counsel to present mitigation information at defendant’s dispositional hearing for his TSR violation. ECF No. 23. The government opposes defendant’s request, arguing that “[n]either the federal rules nor 25 <sup>1</sup> The undersigned has, however, reviewed the "Chronos/Client History" portion of defendant's 26 Probation file, as well as the Dispositional Memorandum prepared by the Probation Officer. ECF

27 No. 26. The court finds that the Probation Officer accurately summarized the defendant's 28 performance on supervision prior to his violation, including that this violation was his first, that he was doing "exceptionally well" with his drug testing and treatment, and that he paid his monetary obligation in full. Id.
